Dear Lieutenant Colonel Watt:

Enclosed are draft transcripts of side 5 (9 September, on site), side 6 (10 September) and side 7 (10 September). As you have noted, the quality of the recording was poor, and even on the original tape, not all of the words are intelligible. The reconstruction is the best possible under the current press of time.

SG1J

On 11 September we continued to work the problem. I attempted to break through the dominate impressions that [REDACTED] was receiving concerning dangers resulting from the "leakage."

SG1J

I had a detailed discussion with [REDACTED] on "weapon systems" and exactly what that term met to him. Frankly, I doubt that he received a psychic input in which "weapon system" came to him. I probably planted that term in his mind during questioning.

I asked him to try again to describe the business of room 333, conceding that we all agreed that the danger of a possible alien transmitter in the room was of utmost importance. He responded with the following psychic impressions. I did not question any of them in an attempt to develop detail or to gain a broader understanding of what they mean.

Alex: I see:

1. Rotation above ground
2. Gathering information
3. The way information is received
4. Not just land information
5. Has something to do with water and something under the water
6. It deals with a type of communication, relay communication

Please share the above with your customer. Hopefully some of them truly are hits.
